Notes

⁽¹⁾ She was listed as Jane Thompson in the 1861 census

⁽²⁾ This was probably one of the Point in View almshouses

A La Ronde entry in the 1881 Census

The owner, Stella Reichel, was at a hotel in Oxford on the date of the census (which was shortly after her marriage to Rev. John Tudor). That marriage meant she should no longer be allowed to own A la Ronde (according to the provisions of Mary Parminter's will) so it was around this time that she sold A la Ronde to her brother Rev. Oswald Reichel.

Address	Name	Relation to Head of Family	Marital status	Age	Occupation	Where born
A la Ronde	Thomas Andrews	Head	Married	70	Gardener	Berkshire, Sparsholt
	Hannah Andrews	Wife	Married	68		Berkshire, Appleton

Almshouse	Eliza Wall	Head	Single	60	Living in Almshouse	Devon, Topsham

Notes

⁽¹⁾ “Single” is used instead of “unmarried” from this census

⁽²⁾ These words may be wrong – the handwriting is very difficult to interpret

⁽³⁾ It is not clear to what this occupation refers

⁽⁴⁾ This appears to be incorrect – all other census entries for Julia Reichel give her place of birth as Islington, London

A La Ronde entry in the 1901 Census

Rev. Oswald Reichel was the owner.
